

WORKFORCE
Public Health Lead	TBC
Responsible	Alison Farrar
Objective	Actions	Outcomes	Domain
Support and coordinate the implementation of the Public Health Workforce Strategy 2012	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> To coordinate wider stakeholder consultation response To support C&M implementation of strategy recommendations To support local public health transition plans as required 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> A final National Public Health Strategy that has input from Cheshire and Merseyside Workforce programme for C&M is developed and aligned to National public health workforce agenda 	All 4 domains
Build capacity and capability of the Public Health Workforce through learning and development opportunities	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> To align future public health education programmes with the Network communications plan to ensure a coordinated approach to educating, training and up-skilling the public health workforce To deliver with the Network Communications Team engagement events/ briefings for elected members to support their understanding of public health To work with North West leadership academy to develop future public health leaders To commission storytelling workshops to develop engagement and communication skills of public health workforce across Cheshire and Merseyside To undertake a baseline audit of existing public health training available currently for clinical and wider workforce in Cheshire and Merseyside To support the development of a local health promoting hospitals network and explore opportunities to share best practice To produce a training & resource directory of Public Health training To collaborate with C&M tPCT to develop a core skills framework for public health 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Public health workforce knowledge & skills will be developed Public health workforce will have the skills, knowledge and competencies to utilise story telling skills appropriately with key stakeholders A comprehensive review of public health training activity across C&M will inform future education commissioning decisions Functioning local hospital network will be established that will contribute to local public health priorities An accessible resource for LA and NHS public health workforce will be available A consistent and quality assured approach to developing core public health competences in the NHS workforce that could be utilised more widely in the future Raise awareness of public health priorities with local elected members to enhance their public health role 	All 4 domains
Provide leadership support on health & wellbeing agenda via work place health initiatives and behaviour	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> To promote 'Making Every Contact Count E Learning Programme' to NHS, LA voluntary sector and wider public health workforce To develop an online community of behaviour change leads to share best practice - via a "Knowledge hub" network To support the work of the regional health, work and wellbeing programme through: <ol style="list-style-type: none"> Participation in the health, work and wellbeing steering group Participation in the accreditation panel for the workplace wellbeing charter 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> E learning resource available to support learning on health chats/healthy lifestyles A behaviour change community in the NW that can communicate effectively with one another Workplace wellbeing charter is implemented across Cheshire and Merseyside 	2